About Me

Hi, I'm Leticia! I am passionate about changing the way people perceive their situations and those of others. I enjoy working alongside individuals to understand their challenges and help them find solutions. In my free time, I love engaging in outdoor activities, especially crafting with friends. I also cherish moments spent walking with my daughter and watching romantic and comedy movies. One of my dreams is to visit Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore. Being bilingual in English and Spanish enables me to connect with and support a diverse range of families effectively.
